

Bugs come in all shapes, sizes and colors. They leap, crawl, fly and even run. And you can find them everywhere. In fact, scientists believe there are more than five million different species of insects roaming the earth! The colorful materials in this kit will help you take an up-close and personal look at the wonderful world of bugs (without even touching them). Just use these simple stencil, stamp and coloring tips to get started.